

FPG TECHNOLOGIES & SOLUTIONS LIMITED

FPG Technologies & Solutions Limited Wins Two Awards in from The Beacon of ICT Awards (BoICT) 2021

FPG Technologies & Solutions Limited (a member of FlexiP Group) is an Information Technology Company committed to helping you and your organization achieve extreme business agility with confidence.

One of Nigeria's foremost Information Technology Companies known for delivering practical digital transformation (DX) consulting and technologies, business insights and productivity solutions, private, public and hybrid multi cloud, Mobility and Infrastructure solutions and services as well as end to end cyber and IT security solutions and services to various sectors of the Nigerian economy, is pleased to announce that it was awarded 2021 BOICT Award for "Cyber Security Company of the Year" and the CEO, Rex Mafiana also wins 'Cybersecurity Personality of the Year' award during the recent annual award ceremony held in Nigeria by Communications Media Limited, Publishers of Nigeria Communications Week, a leading Nigeria's ICT Magazine.

The BOICT awards distinguishes organisation's and individual's contribution to ICT advancement in Nigeria and is considered by experts as the most significant ICT award held in Nigeria.

Joy Ehibor, Head of Marketing and Customer Service pronounced "we are thrilled to receive this award", We would like to thank the organizers of the Awards, our customers, friends and partners, for your continued trust and support. We are honoured for the recognition that we have received and Winning BOICT Awards Fifth year in a row as a company is a great success for the FPG team.

Also, our CEO, Rex Mafiana was named 'Cybersecurity Personality of the Year 2021'. Joy Ehibor, she asserted.

"This award recognizes is a seasoned IT professional and an Award-winning CEO with over 21 years' experience in the African IT segment. A passionate technology advocate recognized for his outstanding leadership in accelerating IT adoption in Nigeria. His unique level of understanding technology, how technology can change lives and businesses and his commitment to leadership has not only built the company to what it has become today but helped shape the Nigerian IT industry". We are proud to have a great leader and visionary who believes in the power of technology to solve problems with innovative technology business solutions and thought-leading approaches to keep helping you with your business challenges especially around digital transformation (DX).

FPG CEO, Rex Mafiana stated "We are honoured for the recognition that we have received from BOICT, and we thank you our customers, partners, and well-wishers for your support always. Winning industry awards confirm the value and hard work of the entire team. The FPG team is committed more than ever to delivering exceptional and innovative technology solutions to the Nigerian market and beyond.

